Distractions

Give examples of distractions if they need support.

How often do they get distracted?

What happens when they get distracted in class?

How does this make them feel?

What can they do to change this?